The Bishop's Message: The Church is Stirring

Dear Friends of the Clergy and Laity:

There is a growing feeling that something unusual is happening in our Diocese. It gives promise of good things to come in the life of the Church and the spiritual vigor of its people. As a speaker at one of our recent conferences said, Episcopalians are taking their religion out of the "deep freeze" and giving God a chance to put something of the fire of His Holy Spirit into it.

Bishop Gilbert

This is the impression produced in many quarters by the response our clergy and people are already making to our Presiding Bishop's call for a great nation-wide program of evangelism. It began with the all-day conference of the clergy of the Diocese at the Cathedral in December when Bishop Sherril was with us and we were all deeply stirred by his presentation of the challenge with which the Church is confronted. This has been followed by smaller meetings in which the clergy have joined in heart-searching prayer and meditation and in consultation as to ways and means of deepening their own spiritual lives and of carrying to their own people the program now before us.

I hope and pray that all our parishes and missions are finding their place and part in the great undertaking to which we have been called. As the clergy have clearly recognized, it must begin with our own individual lives. The title of Mr. Shoemaker's new book, which the Presiding Bishop has appointed for our Lenten reading, gives us a slogan which we should all follow: "Revive Thy Church, Beginning with Me." To that end, I urge all our people to accept and carry out faithfully the "Christian Commitment" which Bishop Donegan, in consultation with the clergy, has formulated. Copies are available to all who desire them.

But we must not stop with the renewing of our own spiritual lives. We all have friends and acquaintances who have drifted away from the Church or who have no Church connection. There must be on the part of all of us a prayerful determination to do all in our power to make them see what the Church has to give and to draw them into its fellowship. If we are honest with ourselves we shall own that we have been strangely reluctant or remiss in following the example which St. Andrew has given us. Our Church statistics record the seriousness of our neglect.

We must keep clear in our minds—and in our prayers—that the great objective of the endeavor to which we are called can be attained only as we make it our business to let others know what we have found and use all our influence to bring them to a knowledge of the Master we serve. In many of our congregations specially selected teams have been organized and trained for this work; but all of us can and should have our share in it.

The requirement immediately before us is to insure the attendance of every communicant at the great Church-wide Corporate Communion on the first Sunday in Lent, February 15th, when special intercessions are to be made for the peace of the world and the extension of God's Kingdom. This ought to be the rallying-time of all our spiritual forces. And, with this beginning, let us so use the privileges that Lent provides, that we may all be quickened and strengthened for the continuing task that God has laid upon us.

Charles Gilbert

Over 250 men and most of the clergy of Westchester Convocation, many of whom drove or came by bus long distances over icy roads, on the coldest night of the year, crowded the Parish Hall of St. Bartholomew's Church, White Plains, for the Laymen's Meeting on Evangelism on Thursday evening, January 15th.

Bishop Donegan presided at the meeting and, in his opening address, reported on the Conferences held by the clergy of the Diocese. He said that many Parishes are planning a house-to-house visitation. In a number of Churches groups of men and women have been organized for the visitation.

Bishop Donegan reported all rectors have indicated their willingness to hold a Corporate Communion for the Parish at 11:00 o'clock on the First Sunday in Lent as requested by the Presiding Bishop and to have special intercessions for the peace of the world.

The Bishop of the Diocese spoke, saying that he was encouraged by the large number of men at the meeting in spite of the sub-zero weather, and urged the laity to give full support to the clergy as they seek to make the Church a more effective witness for Christ "in these trying times."

Evangelism Program of As Clergymen and Laity

The Rev. Arnold Lewis, Director of the Presiding Bishop's Committee on Laymen's Work, spoke on the part of the laity in Evangelism.

The final speaker, Richardson Wright, author, and editor of House and Garden spoke on the necessity of prayer, meditation, frequent Holy Communion and the use of the Prayer Book and the Bible if the laity are to fulfill their vocation as soldiers and servants of Christ. He concluded his address with a meditation on "Where two or three are gathered together in my name, there I am in the midst of them."

The meeting adjourned with the Bishop of the Diocese pronouncing the Blessing.

Evangelism Service in Brewster

A special Evangelical service was held January 25th at St. Andrew's, Brewster for St. Andrew's; Good Shepherd, Granite Springs; Holy Communion, Lake Mahopac; St. James', North Salem; and St. Luke's, Somers.

Evangelism Dominates Lenten Reading Lists

In addition to the Presiding Bishop's Book for Lent, Revive Thy Church, Beginning With Me, by the Rev. Samuel M. Shoemaker, the National Council has prepared a reading list keyed to the theme of Evangelism. Listed are Tomorrow is Here, by K. S. Latourette and W. Richey Hogg; The Bible and the Common Reader, by Mary Ellen Chase; The Story of the New Testament, by E. J. Goodspeed; A Plain Man's Life of Jesus, by A. D. Martin; The Religion of the Prayer Book, by Walden Pell and P. M. Dawley; The Divine Commission, by Frank E. Wilson; The Episcopal Church, Its Faith and Order, by George Hodges, and What Does The Episcopal Church Stand For? by Norman Pittenger.

Diocese Moves Forward Join in Devout Support

A Conference for Manhattan Clergy in the interests of Evangelism was held on January 8th and 9th at All Angels Farm, Ramapo, New York.

Rev. Sam Shoemaker

Besides the Manhattan clergy there were present the Bishop of the Diocese, the Suffragan Bishop, and the Deans of the Bronx, Ramapo and Westchester Convocations.

The leader was the Rev. S. S. Shoemaker, Rector of Calvary Church and Chairman of the Manhattan Committee on Evangelism. The theme of the Conference was Personal Evangelism.

As requested by the clergy of the Convocations, a Rule of Life was prepared which represents a pattern for prayer and thought. Copies of "MY CHRISTIAN COMMITMENT," the title of the Rule of Life, have been made available through the Rt. Rev. H. W. B. Donegan, D.D., 8 Avon Road, Larchmont, New York. The charge is one dollar per hundred.

Bishop Donegan requests that checks covering costs should accompany all orders.

A copy of MY CHRISTIAN COMMITMENT is on pages 8-9 of this edition of the BULLETIN.

Teacher Aids Listed for Lent Bible Study

The Department of Religious Education of the diocese has outlined a program for this year's Lenten Missionary Project, "The Bible Around the World."

Referring to the Lenten Mite Box, Rev. Raymond M. O'Brien, president of the department said, "The Lenten Mite Box not only can be but is a 'Mighty Box,' in teaching value.

Suggested Petition for Every Man at His Work

Grant, O Father, that I may go about this day's business with an ever-present remembrance of the great traditions wherein I stand and the great cloud of witnesses which at all times surround me, that thereby I may be kept from evil ways and inspired to high endeavor.

So keep me until evening, in the might of Jesus Christ, my Lord. Amen.

—John Baillie.

The following educational values for children were listed:

as the children are allowed to take an active part, such as participating in a Mite Box Dedication Service at the beginning and a Presentation Service at the closing;

as the children feel their action in service is meeting a real need for real people;

as they experience fellowship with other Christians who are also trying to minister to human need;

as they think of the project in specific terms such as clothes for babies, Bibles in native languages, building materials for chapels and schools;

as they sense a relationship between the mission project, their class work, and their worship services;

as they watch their progress in giving through one of the many visual aid devices;

as they realize that they are helping Jesus by joining the long line of His followers who have yearned to "Go . . . into all the world . . ."

Materials for use in guiding the study, work, and worship of all ages and groups in the Church, are available from: The National Council, 281 Fourth Avenue, N. Y. C. 10; The Friendship Press (Missionary Education Movement), 156 Fifth Avenue, N. Y. C. 10; and The American Bible Society, 450 Park Avenue, N. Y. C. 22.

Offer New Film on World Relief

The office of the Program of the Church, Old Synod House, has a few prints of a new film entitled "The Road We Walk," 16 mm. with running commentary. It will be loaned on request to parishes sponsoring campaigns for the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief.

Chapel on Riker's Island Dedicated

On Monday, January 12th at ten o'clock, Bishop Gilbert dedicated the Mission House Chapel of St. Mary and St. John on Riker's Island, assisted by the Rev. William E. Sprenger, Director of the City Mission Society, and the Rev. Armen D. Jorjorian, Resident Chaplain at the Penitentiary on Riker's Island.

The Chapel is for the use of the Protestant members of the Penitentiary staff.

The Chapel was built almost entirely by inmates of the Penitentiary under the direction of the chief engineer and under the general supervision of the Bureau of Engineers of the Department of Correction. The New York Altar Guild supplied vestments and various sanctuary appointments.

The guests at the Dedication Service included the Commissioner of Correction, the two Deputy-Commissioners, the Warden and Deputy-Wardens of the Penitentiary, the officers who had directed the construction, representatives of three religious societies connected with the Department of Correction, the President of the New York Altar Guild and its Chairman for Riker's Island, and the Chaplaincy Staff of the City Mission Society.

Bishop Gilbert emphasized the spirit of cooperation between the Church and the civil authority in the erection of the Chapel.

Auxiliary Surpasses $40,000.00 Quota

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese, of which there are 180 branches, pledged to the National Council for 1947, $40,000. Total receipts against this pledge were $41,947.78 which represented an increase of $5,843.17 over the previous year.

The 1947 Christian Social Service Pledge of $2,500 for work on Ellis Island was over-subscribed by $185.67.

These gifts serve a three-fold purpose: They "help" the National Council; provision is made for one phase of work within the Diocese; and the contributions are credited to parish quotas.

Diocese Moved at Passing of Mrs. Arthur H. Judge

The diocese was moved with deep sorrow at the passing of Georgianna Frederica Judge, wife of the Rev. Arthur H. Judge, D.D., on January 20, 1948.

Mrs. Judge was vitally interested in the Woman's Auxiliary and at one time was also the head of a branch of The Daughters of the King. Dr. and Mrs. Judge were married for 64 years.

The funeral service was held at the Church of St. Matthew and St. Timothy, January 23rd. Bishop Donegan officiated, assisted by the Rev. Robert J. Creech, of the parish.

Rev. Mr. Shoemaker on Radio

Thursdays, 8:45 A.M. and 11:30 P.M., Eastern Time, the Reverend Samuel Shoemaker is heard over the A.B.C. network.

Address Bishop Donegan's Mail to Larchmont, N. Y.

Correspondence for the Right Reverend Horace W. B. Donegan, D.D., Suffragan Bishop, should be addressed to 8 Avon Road, Larchmont, N. Y.

Letters sent to Cathedral Heights must be readdressed, causing a two to three day delay in delivery.

Celebrate Race Relations Sunday

The Greater New York celebration of Race Relations, Sunday, February 8th, was held at the Cathedral of St. John the Divine. Dr. Benjamin E. Mays, president of Morehouse College, Atlanta, Georgia, spoke on "The Unpopular, but Inescapable Christ."

Rector's Wife Passes

Mrs. Wren Wilson Myers, wife of the Rev. J. B. Myers, rector of Trinity Church, Fishkill, died on January 25. The funeral service was conducted on January 27 by Bishop Donegan.

Mrs. Myers was the director of the Altar Guild of Trinity Church, a member of St. Mark's Guild, Chelsea, Guild of St. John the Baptist, Glenham, and the Daughters of The American Revolution. She was also secretary of the Fishkill Chapter of the American Red Cross.

Inter-Diocesan Body Pushes Social Laws

The Inter-Diocesan Committee on Legislation, representing the six Episcopal Dioceses in the State of New York, held its annual meeting in Albany, January 19th, in conjunction with the Churchman's Legislative Seminar of the New York State Council of Churches.

The proposed Fair Educational Practices Act for New York State, to outlaw discrimination based on race, religion, color or national origin in the admission of students to all educational institutions, was unanimously approved. The Committee also approved in principle the report of the Owen D. Young Committee on Higher Education, with its recommendation of a State University, plus regional four-year and two-year colleges, and professional schools. The Committee voted, however, to urge that the cost of operating the regional institutions be borne entirely by the State.

After debate, the Committee voted four to two (one not voting) to oppose Universal Military Training.

During the sessions of the Legislative Seminar, the delegates heard the Rev. Thomas B. Keen, Washington, D. C., Legislative Representative of the Council for Social Action of the Congregational—Christian Churches, "Appraisal of Roman Catholic Social Action."

The delegates met Governor Thomas E. Dewey for a forty-five-minute off-the-record talk.

The Rev. Leland B. Henry, Chairman of the Inter-Diocesan Committee, had an hour's conference with the Hon. Harold Ostertag, Chairman of the Special Committee on Social Welfare and Relief (a joint committee of the Senate and Assembly). Mr. Henry presented the statement on Child Welfare previously approved by the Inter-Diocesan Committee, and discussed pending legislation in the field of child care, especially the proposed amendment of the adoption law.

Presiding Bishop's Nation-Wide Hook-up Seeks Million in a Day for World Relief

Presiding Bishop Henry Knox Sherril will appeal to all Episcopalians by radio over four hundred stations at 11:30 A.M., the Third Sunday in Lent, February 29th, to help meet the needs of our fellow Christians in Europe and Asia. The coverage has been termed by radio officials the nearest to a nation-wide presidential radio address.

The Bishop's message will urge every church member to take part in alleviating this need through the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief.

Leaders hope the Church will give at least a million dollars in 1948 to the fund, and it is expected a major part will be realized on this day.

Hundreds of parishes and missions are planning to install receiving sets and amplifying systems so that every one attending the 11 o'clock service may hear Bishop Sherril. The program will originate in New York and will be carried by the Mutual Broadcasting System in this area. Transcriptions have been made available for parishes in other time zones and records are available for churches which do not have an eleven o'clock service or where it is desired to bring the message to an earlier or later service. Bishop Gilbert has urged all parishes and missions in the Diocese to cooperate in this plan.

Our church and 21 other American churches, including the Rumanian, Serbian and Russian Othodox churches in North America have joined together through Church World Service to provide relief in localities where resources are

Cathedral Choir Opens Presiding Bishop's Radio Appeal Feb. 29th

The choir of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, which will sing before the Presiding Bishop's radio address on February 29, recently recorded several hymns which were later made a part of the transcriptions and records of Bishop Sherril's message. The recording was done in the Cathedral.

at a minimum. In 1947 aid went to 43 countries and amounted to over $14,500,000.

Representatives of the Episcopal Church sit on the Board of Directors of Church World Service and on all of its Committees. Missionaries and volunteer workers help to administer the program so that administrative costs are kept at a minimum.

The Diocese of New York is asked to contribute $138,500 in 1948 and each parish and mission has been assigned a share. Contributions are forwarded through the parish treasurers to the Treasurer of the Diocese.

How Faith and Good Will Rebuild Church

Out of the ashes of St. Mary's, West Brighton, is rising a new testimony to Christian fellowship and faith.

Last August 12th, standing side by side in ankle-deep water, peering with bloodshot eyes through the hot, sickening gloom of the smouldering ruin, faithful members of the parish, men of the community, Protestant, Roman Catholic, and Jewish, formed a chain-line from the inner sacristy through the Chapel to the Parish House. Vestments, altar hangings, silver and brass were salvaged from the smoking, charred remains of what had once been St. Mary's.

"The Church building may be destroyed, but the Church is still here," said the Rev. Orin Anthony Griesmeyer, rector, through his tears.

Then from all sides came expressions of deep, personal loss and sympathy. Neighborhood churches and theaters offered their buildings. And gifts, unsolicited, began to pour in from the Knights of Columbus, the Masonic Order, the Borough President, dean of the Roman Catholic Clergy, Msgr. Joseph A. Farrell, B'nai B'rith, and just people; until over $7,000.00 was received.

While faint blue smoke still rose, the new St. Mary's was being born.

The two-foot-thick stone walls remained undamaged, and within them everyone purposed to rebuild the early English Gothic structure fire had swept away.

A $40,000.00 increase in fire insurance covered the reconstruction except for $20,000.00. Raymond H. Juliam, communicant of St. Mary the Virgin, was architect. The construction contract was let to the Gabler Construction Company. The church expects to worship in the restored building by July 15th of this year, with all work completed by October.

In the meantime, St. Mary's begins its Centennial Year in her Parish House, amid salvaged kneelers and rude furnishings.

Girls' Friendly Society to Meet

The Diocesan Girls' Friendly Society meeting February 14, at Lenox Hill Neighborhood House at 10:30 A.M. is to be centered on the national program material of the year, "Girls Around the World."

In the afternoon, "Group Work Methods and Techniques" will be led by Miss Ruth Teichmann of the Campfire Girls.

Treasurer Gets Gifts for Episcopal Hour of the Air

Parishes have begun to send to the Treasurer of the Diocese contributions obtained for financing an Episcopal Hour of the Air and for the production of documentary films. The program which was outlined in a pamphlet called "We Dare to Lead" envisions reaching a large audience, many unchurched, through modern means of communication.

Missionary Contributions Break Records for Giving

The $367,763.03 received for the Church's regular missionary program is the largest since 1932 and is almost $60,000 more than was given in 1946. 108 parishes and missions fully met or exceeded their mathematical quotas. Many parishes and missions subscribed 50% more than the previous year. $198,477 was allocated to the National Council and $155,000 to diocesan agencies:

Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society
 Diocesan Board of Religious Education
 Commission on Christian Social Relations
 Church Mission to Deaf Mutes
 Church Periodical Club
 Girls' Friendly Society
 Youth Consultation Service

EXAMPLE. Drawing by D. George Adams of St. Simon's planned vicarage illustrates one type of work done by the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society.

Clergy Notes

The Rev. Robins H. Thatcher has been appointed Vicar of Incarnation Chapel, succeeding the Rev. James L. Grant with whom he served as assistant. Formerly canonically resident in the Diocese of Iowa, he has been transferred to this Diocese.

Rev. R. H. Thatcher

The Rev. Rob Roy Remington has been critically ill in St. Luke's Hospital but is now reported to be making a good recovery. For several weeks he has been taking the services at St. John's Church, Monticello, and at St. Andrew's Mission, S. Fallsburgh, where he has many friends.

The Rev. G. A. Zeltner, Vicar of St. Paul's Church, Spring Valley, and of St. John's Church, New City, is recovering from a serious illness in Nyack Hospital.

The Rev. George W. Smith, since 1943 a curate at St. Luke's Chapel, New York City, left January 6th to become rector, St. Luke's, St. Albans, Vt.

The Diocese will learn with deep regret that the Reverend Thomas McCandless has announced his resignation as Rector of St. Michael's Church, New York, to take effect on June 30.

For many years Mr. McCandless served as President of the Standing Committee, a member of the Board of Managers of the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society, and a member of the Committee on Diocesan Finances.

Mr. McCandless has retired because of "weight of years."
