The Bishop's Message

Dear Friends of the Clergy and Laity:

The glorious Easter Festival will have passed before this issue of the BULLETIN reaches its readers. I earnestly hope that the people of all our parishes and missions found in their observance of Lent and Holy Week that which gave them some new understanding and new appreciation of what that great Day means for us. Had we the faith to make our own the true significance of that wondrous Victory that has been won for us we could live with Him now in the joy of His resurrection in spite of all the anxious misgivings that come to us out of the sorely troubled times through which our world is passing.

The cross on Calvary and the empty tomb of Easter Day have demonstrated that there is power with God to bring triumphant achievement out of what the world calls "failure" and "death." It could be so today, had we the faith to possess the power that He makes available and the courage to use it. But we feel so helpless when we measure our resources and our influence against the overwhelming problems and needs with which our world is confronted. And it is hard to resolve those needs and problems into terms of personal service and responsibility.

Easter gives us the assurance that there can be no futility or failure for the life that links itself with God's purpose. With confidence in the capacities wherewith He has endowed us and with faith in that love wherewith "God so loved the world" we can take our place by the side of our crucified Lord in the confidence that no honest effort, no consecrated service can ever fail. They are all gathered up in the perfect service of the cross on Calvary—the sign by which we conquer.

God asks us only to do what we can. If we will but avail ourselves of the grace which He ever waits to provide and do our best we can leave the results with Him.

I hope our people will think of this as they face the compelling challenge which our Church is now seeking to meet. The response that our parishes and missions have made to the "One World in Christ" appeal of our Presiding Bishop has been most encouraging. It gives us reason to believe that if all of us will only do what we can, the goal assigned to our Diocese will be met.

Draws on Other Funds to Meet Deficit

GOAL: $150,000

PAID: $86,672

While total donations to the "Cornerstone" Campaign were $63,328 short of the goal set, Bishop Gilbert has announced that all of the projects contemplated by the campaign are expected to be completed by the end of 1950. This will be made possible by the use of funds which were being held for future needs and by savings in construction cost through the use of new materials and the elimination of some construction features. Here is what has been accomplished to date:

1. The addition to St. Andrew's, New Paltz, has been completed.
2. St. Simon's Church at New Rochelle is about two-thirds completed.
3. St. Martha's Church, North White Plains is two-thirds completed.
4. St. Marks' Parish House in North Yonkers is two-thirds completed.
5. Plans for St. Luke's Church, Williamsbridge, have been filed and contracts will be let shortly.
6. Purchase of the site for St. Francis of Assisi, Elmsford, is under contract and the church will be erected this summer.

7. Site for the new church on Eastchester Road in the Bronx has been purchased.

8. The small parish hall to be built as an addition to St. Andrew's, Montgomery, has been given priority on the first funds available. $3,000. is needed and is expected to be forthcoming within a few months.

Committee to Nominate B Names to be Placed Befor

The request of the Bishop of the Diocese for the election of a Suffragan Bishop having been approved at a special session of the Diocesan Convention held October 25, 1949, your Committee issued an invitation in November, 1949, to the Clergy and Clerks of Vestries of Parishes and of Advisory Boards of Missions in the Diocese to submit names of Clergymen whom they might wish the Committee to consider in preparing its report to the Annual Diocesan Convention to be held May 9, 1950.

Many names have been submitted, the Committee has on its own motion added further names, and a number of those under consideration have been withdrawn by the Clergymen themselves or by their proposers. As a result of its deliberations, which have extended over a period of several months, the Committee begs leave to report to the Convention that it deems the following qualified for the office of Suffragan Bishop and intends upon the submission of this report at the Annual Diocesan Convention to be held May 9, 1950, to place their names in nomination for said office:

The Rt. Rev. Charles Francis Boynton, STD (Bishop of Puerto Rico)

The Ven. George Frederick Bratt

The Rev. Fenimore Edgar Cooper

Mrs. Fannie J. Wood Dies

Mrs. Fannie J. Wood of Grace, Port Jervis, died March 3 at the age of ninety-one years. The Rev. Robert Gay, rector of Port Jervis, said, "She was one of our staunchest supporters of the Woman's Auxiliary and Missionary Work within our own Diocese."

The women of St. Augustine's (in-the-Street), Yonkers, have planned a city-wide tag day for Saturday, May 6th under the leadership of Mrs. Estelle Holst and Mrs. Marion Lambert.

The effort is part of $1,500 pledged to be raised before June 30.

"One World in Christ" Missionary Drive Seen Achieving Goal by First Returns

The "One World in Christ" campaign reached its climax on March 12th with the Presiding Bishop's broadcast. From all reports the message was heard in nearly every parish and mission in the Diocese. As we go to press reports of the financial result of the campaign are meagre but a definite upward trend in giving is evident. Almost sixty parishes and missions have already indicated that their full quotas will be met and many others indicate greatly increased giving with a distinct possibility of the quota being reached through further activity during the balance of the year.

The final vestry visitations of the 51 district field officers were completed early in March and many of these laymen accepted speaking engagements before other parish groups. "The enthusiasm and devotion of these laymen to their task of telling the story of the Church's mission to their fellow laymen has been most heartening," said Theodor Oxholm, secretary of the Committee on the Program of the Church.

"Every man participating wants to carry this program forward. As a result we are planning a series of meetings immediately after Easter. At these meetings every layman who participated in these visitations will be asked to give his views on the merits of the program and his ideas on how it should be continued."

St. Barnabas House Holds Open House for Manhattan Churches

The following is the schedule of tea dates and churches in the Diocese coming to St. Barnabas House:

APRIL 15th: a Saturday Tea at 2:30 for business and professional women's groups and any other interested people who cannot come on a week day.

APRIL 25th: Epiphany, St. Bartholomew's, St. Ambrose, St. Michael's, St. Jude's.

MAY 10th: All Angels', St. Stephen's, St. Martin's, St. Luke's (Convent Ave.), St. George's Chapel, Transfiguration, St. Mary's (Manhattanville), and Calvary Church.

"Parochialism is the isolationism of the Christian Faith—a Parish that does not give to missions is a dying parish. It is a spiritual law running through life that one must give to live, and to find life most richly."

"It is also true that as a parish begins to grow in its vision of the world-community of Faith, it grows itself, because it has learned this deep lesson of the spiritual life."

Convention to Elect a Suffragan; Fix Budget

The 168th Convention of the Diocese will be held in the Synod Hall on May 9, 1950 to elect a Suffragan Bishop.

Another important matter to come before the Convention will be a proposal by the Diocesan Finance Committee to change the timing of the submission of a budget for Diocesan missionary work.

At the present time, the Convention in May approves a budget for Diocesan agencies for the calendar year in which the Convention is held. Consequently the canvass in the fall previous and the operation of the agencies for four months prior to the Convention are based on a budget which has not had the approval of Convention. This Convention will be asked to amend the canons so that the missionary budget for the following calendar year will be adopted by each Convention. If approval of the plan is given, the Convention this May will adopt two missionary budgets, one for the calendar year 1950 and one for 1951. Then the canvass in the fall of 1950 will be made with the assurance that the program has had Convention approval and a method will be proposed to adjust the budget later to reflect actual receipts.

CONDEMNED as a place for "public assembly" March 1 by the City of Yonkers, the former place of worship of St. Augustine's congregation is locked by the vicar, the Rev. Alger L. Adams while children of the church school watch.

Norman Weaver painted the kitchen (Woman's Auxiliary paid for the paint and a new steam table). Wallace Abrams, Norman Weaver and John W. Conlin made new kneeling hassocks.

"Supply" Supplies Love with Its Work

In discussing the Supply Department of the Woman's Auxiliary last month, Mrs. Arthur J. Simpson said she was once asked why the Auxiliary didn't buy ready made clothes instead of cutting and sewing.

"Anyone who saw the exhibit of the garments made in our parish workrooms, at the March 7 meeting of the Auxiliary in St. Bartholomew's, will need no answer," she said. "The garments shown were cut in one cutting room but the trimmings and finishing were left to the individual and it was amazing to see the differences between them.

"There was nothing about them which suggested the word 'institution,' but much that spoke of love and concern for the recipient. It is by this work of their hands that every woman here at home feels she has a definite part in the Mission for which she is working. Could you create any such interest simply by drawing a check?"

A Convocation Square Dance sponsored by the Woman's Auxiliary of Richmond will be given April 15th at St. John's, Rosebank, for the benefit of the General Theological Seminary. Donation is $1, and costume optional.
